The ones that got away.

In 5 seasons your scouts wrote about 139 players. 35 moved up a level. You signed 4. These are the 31 that got away, and who, if anyone, called each one first.

139
players followed

35
moved up (about 34 expected)

31
got away

47%
of sign calls moved up (usual 29%)

WHO GOT AWAY

Player	Level then → after	First seen	First to say sign
Ciaran Foulkes	Level 6 → Level 4	Jul 2021, Dan Kerridge	Dan Kerridge, Jul 2021
Ade Edevane	Level 5 → Level 3	Mar 2022, Dan Kerridge	Dan Kerridge, Mar 2022
Callum Kolawole	Level 4 → Level 3	Oct 2019, Steve Hale	Dan Kerridge, Oct 2021
Rhys Edevane	Level 5 → Level 4	Feb 2020, Dan Kerridge	Dan Kerridge, Feb 2020
Ben Sutcliffe	Level 4 → Level 3	Apr 2020, Steve Hale	Steve Hale, Apr 2020
Toby Foulkes	Level 5 → Level 4	Jul 2021, Dan Kerridge	Dan Kerridge, Jul 2021
Kai Rourke	Level 5 → Level 4	Jul 2021, Sophie Lang	Sophie Lang, Jul 2021
Toby Kolawole	Level 4 → Level 3	Dec 2021, Sophie Lang	Sophie Lang, Dec 2021
Femi Brenner	Level 5 → Level 4	Jan 2022, Steve Hale	Steve Hale, Jan 2022
Rhys Yates	Level 6 → Level 5	Jul 2022, Steve Hale	Steve Hale, Jul 2022
José Benton	Level 2 → Level 1 · top	Nov 2022, Marcus Bell	Marcus Bell, Nov 2022
Reece Byrne	Level 6 → Level 5	Apr 2023, Dan Kerridge	Dan Kerridge, Apr 2023

And 19 more in the full audit.

EACH SCOUT'S SIGN CALLS

Scout	Calls	Moved up	Expected	Called first
Dan Kerridge	12	6	3	6
Sophie Lang	10	4	3	2
Steve Hale	12	4	3	3
Priya Nair	8	2	2	0
Marcus Bell	4	1	1	1

Too few calls each for a percentage. "Expected": how many players like these move up anyway.

Moving up: a level higher within three seasons of the first report, in the same country's leagues. Facts, not blame: the club decides what they mean. Under-18s are never shown. No transfer fees are used. Fictional club, scouts and players.